

5. Celebrating Easter and Pentecost

A name given to God because he is the one who has made or 'created' everything.	The day before Easter Sunday.
The night before Easter Sunday, when Christians celebrate the death and resurrection of Jesus.	A special day when Christians celebrate something important in Jesus' life, or Mary's life, or one of the Saints. Also called a Feast day.
Gifts from God.	A famous follower of Jesus. He died for being Christian.

5. Celebrating Easter and Pentecost

To have told a lie, say the opposite of the truth on purpose.	The life with God in heaven which Christians hope to have forever after they die.
---	---