

INSPIRER AND TEACHER

To inspire literally means 'to breathe in'. A connected word is 'inspiration'. The Holy Spirit is the Inspirer of all scripture, the Light in the minds of the writers to make the words holy. That is why the Creed says of the Holy Spirit: 'He has spoken through the prophets'.

- 1 Read the story of Peter and Cornelius (Acts 10).
 - a) Design short scripted captions to fit with the pictures beside.
 - b) What lesson did the Holy Spirit wish to teach to the Church through Peter's dream and experience?
 - c) Give one other Truth that the Holy Spirit has led the Church to proclaim.

Research

Look up and explain in your own words what is meant by Magisterium.